FINE.

Oct 2020 to Dec 2021

To enhance the young generation's understanding of the local characteristics in Kwun Tong, this program offers various trainings of performing arts including dancing, magic, rope skipping and choir to the youth residing in the district. Together with the performances and volunteering services lined up by the programme, the interaction and sense of belonging were enhanced among people from all walks of life.

Some photos are provided by the presenter