

一人一筆一故事

Presented by

Hong Kong Chinese Writing Brush Pen Museum Association

November 2024 to March 2025

The programme organizes calligraphy and brush-making workshops to cultivate interest in Chinese calligraphy among To Kwa Wan and Kowloon City residents, let them learn about traditional brush craftsmanship, and promote arts and culture in the community. During the Chinese New Year period, the programme also distributed festive fai chun within the district to strengthen community bonding.

Note: The programme does not carry an English name.
